The Will of Abraham Craieſteyn, Eſq;

Extracted from the Regiſtry of the Prerogative Court of Canterbury.

IN the name of God, Amen. I Abraham Craieſteyn, of Highgate, in the county of Middleſex, Eſq; being of a ſound mind and memory, do make this my laſt will and teſtament, in manner and form following; that is to ſay, Firſt, I give and bequeath unto my dear and loving wife Anne Craieſteyn, the ſum of one hundred thouſand pounds, for her own proper uſe; and I further give and bequeath unto my ſaid dear wife, all ſuch my money or caſh, which at the time of my death, ſhall be in the hands of William Iſaac Kops, merchant, and alſo all the ready money which ſhall then be in my houſe; and I further give and bequeath unto my ſaid dear wife, all my rings, jewels, plate, China-ware, coach, chariot, and all my horſes, and harneſſes, and all my wearing apparel, and all my houſhold goods, houſhold linnen, and all my houſhold furniture whatſoever, for her own uſe. I give and bequeath unto my loving brother Francis Craieſteyn, Eſq; the ſum of eighty thouſand pounds. I give and bequeath to Mary Pilchor, the ſervant to my ſaid brother, the ſum of one hundred pounds; and to Bethia Roſs, another ſervant of my ſaid brother, the ſum of two hundred pounds. I give and bequeath to Mr. George Hardy, miniſter of the congregation of diſſenters at Highgate, the ſum of two hundred pounds. I give and bequeath unto the ſaid William Iſaac Kops, the ſum of one thouſand pounds; and I give and bequeath unto his four grand-daughters, Anne, Elizabeth, Mary, Agnes, and Johanna Couſſmaker (the children of Mr. Bernard Couſſmaker) the ſum of one thouſand pounds a-piece. I give and bequeath unto my couſin Jacob Vander Grooſs, of Haerlem, in Holland, and Cornelia, his wife, each of them the ſum of three thouſand pounds. I give and bequeath unto one hundred poor widows of diſſenters, of good life and converſation, ſuch as my ſaid brother ſhall approve, the ſum of ten pounds a-piece. I give and bequeath unto William Colborne, of the Bath, apothecary, the ſum of two thouſand pounds. I give and bequeath to Mr. Richard * Richard Frances, apothecary, who now lives with me, the ſum of one thouſand and five hundred pounds. I give and bequeath to Elizabeth Collibee, and Anne Collibee, her ſiſter, both of the Bath, the ſum of one hundred pounds a-piece: I direct that all the before-mentioned legacies ſhall be paid within three months, next after my death; all the reſidue of my goods, chattels, and perſonal eſtate I give and bequeath unto my ſaid brother, Francis Craieſteyn, whom I conſtitute and appoint ſole executor of this my will; and I do hereby revoke, and make void, all former wills, by me at any time heretofore made: In witneſs whereof I have to this my laſt will and teſtament, and to a duplicate thereof, ſet my hand and ſeal, this fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand, ſeven hundred, and fifty-four.

Abra. Craieſteyn.

Signed, ſealed, publiſhed, and declared by the before-named Abraham Craieſteyn, as and for his laſt will and teſtament, in the preſence of us, Hammond Croſſe.
Wal. Gibbons.

I the above-named Abraham Craieſteyn, do give and bequeath, unto my friend Henry Durrell, Eſq; of Abchurch-lane, London, the ſum of five hundred pounds, and the bequeſt of this legacy I direct ſhall be taken as part of my will, being ſigned by me at the ſame time, as witneſs my hand,

Abra. Craieſteyn.
Witneſs Hammond Croſſe.
Wal. Gibbons.

This will was proved at London, with a codicil, the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord 1754, before the worſhipful George Harris, Doctor of Laws, and Surrogate, by the oath of Francis Craieſteyn, Eſq; the brother of the deceaſed, and ſole executor, named in the ſaid will, to whom adminiſtration was granted, being firſt ſworn duly to adminiſter.

Wm. Legard,
Pet. St. Eloy,
Hen. Stevens,
